

GOODIN DIES AT HOSPITAL OF INJURIES

Amputation of Leg Followed by Death—Had Been Unconscious Since Accident At Cooperdale Sunday.

At 9:30 o'clock Wednesday night, John W. Goodin, aged 48, died at the City hospital, as a result of injuries received in an automobile accident on Sunday, April 18. Death followed five hours after Mr. Goodin had undergone the amputation of his leg, in hopes that the operation might prove the means of saving his life. He never rallied from the effects of the anesthetic but died without recognizing any of his loved ones, who waited about his bed for some last sign of recognition.

Pinned Beneath Machine
In the accident which cost him his life, Mr. Goodin was pinned beneath the machine in such a manner that his leg was terribly cut just above the knee. The large vein, muscles and ligaments were severed and when he was lifted from underneath the machine, he was unconscious from loss of blood. He was also severely injured by cuts about the head. He remained in a semi-conscious, delirious condition for two days at the City hospital where he was taken immediately following the accident. Though the injured leg was given every attention, it was realized Wednesday that the circulation had stopped and that amputation was the only means of saving his life. Mr. Goodin was a sufferer from a weak heart and this, together with the suffering since the day of the accident, made it impossible for him to withstand the shock of the amputation.

Accident At Cooperdale
The fatal accident occurred at Cooperdale, Sunday afternoon when Mr. Goodin and other members of his family were taking a pleasure ride in a Buick touring car, owned and driven by Henry Klingler, who makes his home with the Goodins on South Seventh street. The machine slid over a 12 foot embankment and Klingler and Clarence Goodin, aged 16, were the only ones of the seven occupants to escape injury. The father and a son, Fremont, 12, were the most seriously injured and the son is still in a critical condition at the hospital, his condition having been reported to be somewhat hopeful. Wednesday night, for the first time since the accident.

Native Of County
John W. Goodin was born in Jackson twp., near Roseoe and had spent his entire life in this vicinity. He was one of two sons of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Goodin. Sixteen years ago he came with his family to Coshocton and for a year was employed at the Adams Express office. For fifteen years he had been clerk at the W. & L. E. freight station and in this capacity won the respect and admiration of every business man in the city by his accommodating manner and desire to please upon every occasion.

He had been a life long church member, during his earlier years being affiliated with the B. F. L. church, but since his residence in Coshocton, had been a member of the Seventh Street Christian church. He was a member of the American Insurance union.

Dr. H. B. Miller Dies At West Lafayette Home

Dr. H. B. Miller, aged 66, died at his home in West Lafayette at 9:30 o'clock, Wednesday night. He had been in failing health for sometime and for the last two weeks had been confined to his bed, suffering from chronic heart trouble.

Dr. Miller had been a practicing physician in West Lafayette for thirty-one years and in the earlier years of his residence there, enjoyed one of the largest practices of any physician in the county. He was born and reared in New Concord, Muskingum county. He graduated from the Jefferson Medical College, in Philadelphia, in 1884 and at once established an office in West Lafayette. Owing to failing health he had been unable to keep up only an office practice during the last few years.

Dr. Miller never married. He leaves two brothers, Joseph and William, of New Concord. A sister died two years ago. No funeral arrangements had been made last night, as word from the brothers was being awaited.

First Township School Promotion Exercises

A. J. Jams Township will hold its grade school promotion exercises Thursday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock in the Bakersville Presbyterian church.

This will be the first time in the history of Coshocton county that an event of such a nature has occurred. At this time, the students in the seven lower grades of each of the eight schools in the township will be promoted with suitable exercises. On the eighth of May, some fifteen or sixteen of the eighth grade students will be admitted to the final examinations.

At seven o'clock Thursday evening, the township speaking and spelling contest will be held in the Presbyterian church. Each of the eight schools will have two contestants for each of the two events and the winners of first and second places in each event will receive medals. A silver cup will go to the school whose representative wins first in either event. The cup becomes the permanent property of the school winning it in three successive years.

The contestants choose their own selections in the speaking contest. In the spelling contest, fifty words will be pronounced and must be written out by the contestants. The judges for the events are County Superintendent L. C. Shaw, Prof. W. H. Norris, Blanche Riey, Maude Norris, and John Ely.

At Keene School.... The Keene township school will hold their promotion exercises in the auditorium of the new high school May 12. Five schools will be represented.

In the evening of the same day there will be held the speaking and spelling contests. There will be ten contestants in each of the two events or two from each school. Medals will be awarded to the winners of the first two places in each event. Two silver loving cups will be awarded for the events. They will go to the school represented by the winner of each contest. The cups will become the permanent property of the school that succeeds in winning it for three successive years.

John A. Hanlon, Engineer, Writes Concerning Roads

Facts and Figures of Interest to Every Tax Payer Given In a Series of Articles On Roads--Practical to Build From Eight to Ten Miles of Improved Road In County Each Year.

In view of considerable road agitation throughout the county, and the fact that every tax payer is interested in economy for the county, the following article, which is the first of a series, by John A. Hanlon, well known civil engineer, prepared especially for The Tribune, should prove decidedly interesting.

Mr. Hanlon bases his article on facts and figures gained through practical experience in all branches of civil engineering.

The first article follows:

Materials Used.

The purpose of this article is to present data of cost of a portion of the improved roads built in this vicinity in recent years, enabling those who are active in the 'good roads' movement to consider intelligently the matter of a more general use of local material in highway construction, lessening the cost as compared with brick or concrete and securing a greater mileage of well built roads, at the same time taking into consideration the probable increased cost of maintenance in the less expensive first cost.

Limited Resources.

Owing to the resources of this county from taxation, it is very evident from the cost data here given that the county can only undertake the building of from one to three miles of brick or concrete roads in any one year and probably not on any one of the main roads, two years in succession, even with the available state aid.

Permanent Material.

The plan of improving inter-county or market roads as established by the State Highway Department is understood to provide for the use of the more permanent materials, brick, concrete or macadam, and the expense to be jointly with the county through which the road passes and this plan, no doubt, covers several of the main county roads running in different directions, so that whether this general plan is carried out in the near future or not, there still remain many miles of inter-county roads radiating from the principal county centers, Coshocton, Warsaw and West Lafayette (the three municipal corporations of Cosho-cton County), which if improved at all, must be so done largely with local material.

The Rural Routes.

There are eight rural mail routes running out of Coshocton with an average traveled mileage of about 25 miles each, these routes being originally established to reach the greater resident population with daily mail service, hence, as a general proposition the road improvement of these rural routes would be in line with the maxim 'the greatest good to the greatest number.'

To undertake the improvement of any considerable portion of these main highways with high class material and methods would be a work which very few, if any, now of adult age, would see the completion of.

Local Material.

Local material, as meant in this article, refers to gravel, limestone and coal mine cinder or slag, more particularly gravel and slag, as they are more favorably known both in road building and repair work in this vicinity.

It is believed that only small portions of this county are barren of all three of these enumerated and not within reasonable distance of wagon hauls so that the results of the use of local materials on the main roads in this vicinity have a general application throughout the county.

The following sections of improved road work with approximately correct cost data are located in Tuscawawas, Jackson, Franklin and Keene twps., comprising a Special Road District.

A Comparison.

A section of the Coshocton-Warsaw road extends from the Roseoe corporation line to the first canal bridge, one mile and 200 feet, was built in 1911 using bank gravel and its present good condition with scarcely any maintenance expense compares very favorably with other roads improved with more permanent material.

The construction work of this section, leaving out certain of the details was mainly, grading the roadway to a width of 20 feet exclusive of ditches, where such were required.

The central 12 feet was excavated to a depth of 12 inches which left berms on each side 4 feet wide to retain the gravel, as a curb.

Six inches of bank gravel were rolled in the bottom of this excavation with an 8 ton steam roller, then six inches of crushed and screened gravel followed, also rolled with the steam roller as were at the same time the berms, making a smooth compact surface 20 feet in width.

The contractor was paid for this work about $2800 and including the contingencies of advertising, engineering and supervision, cost entire not exceeding $3000 per mile.

In the same year and under the same specifications, a section of the Coshocton-Dresden road in Jackson township 5050 feet in length was built at about the same cost per mile as above, although a large portion of the gravel was hauled nearly two miles. This road was much damaged by the flood of March 1913 and repairs were made as ordinary road repairs are made which accounts for its being only partially restored to its condition before the flood.

Of gravel roads built in Franklin and Keene townships prior to the above, no data is at hand showing original cost of construction or cost of maintenance.

Cinder Or Slag.

Coal mine cinder or slag has been used on several sections of improved road in Tuscawawas and Jackson townships with generally good results and where not now in satisfactory condition is owing largely to the fact that the cinder was not crushed or broken to uniform sizes and uneven settlement has been the result.

This slag has been used rather as a second choice where the use of gravel would involve a long haul. It is altogether likely that were this material properly treated, particularly the wearing surface, it may be found superior to gravel in the matter of dust, as its use in road work indicates that it carries a percentage of iron and cementing substances which harden under traffic.

In its relation to cost, it has been found on two contracts to

Victim Of Peculiar Accident

Byron Meredith, of Warsaw, was the victim of a peculiar accident Tuesday afternoon about three o'clock.

He was riding a bicycle and in some manner was thrown so that his head was cut and his side severely bruised. Rendered unconscious by the fall, he lay for some time, before he recovered sufficiently to stagger to a nearby dwelling. Here he was found by William Speckman, who assisted him to his home.

Meredith was in a dazed condition for more than two hours and remembers nothing that occurred during that time. He is unable to tell how the accident happened.

Local Dentists Give Clinics

The following is clipped from the Athens Daily Messenger:

Dr. Haight, of Coshocton, gave a very interesting clinic before the Ohio Valley Dental Society held here April 14th at the Berry Hotel.

Dr. Haight is a well known and popular local dentist. At the same meeting, Dr. R. M. Temple, formerly of this city but now of Columbus, gave a clinic on "Points on the Prevention of Protrusion."

Damage Case Commenced

The trial of the case of Charles Miller against the Coshocton Brick Co. for $2,999 damages was commenced in common pleas court Wednesday and indications are that it will be completed this morning.

The plaintiff alleges that his health was broken on account of negligence on behalf of the defendant for whom he worked.

Attorneys B. F. Voorhees and W. S. Merrill represent the plaintiff and F. E. Ponerec represents the defendant.

A good spender is hardly ever a good producer. Popularity should begin at home.

Grocers Object To Bills

The Coshocton Retail Grocer's and Butcher's Association, following an inspection of the books of the city auditor, are objecting to two bills of provisions ordered by Safety Director Hall for the City hospital. The goods were ordered from The Citizens Wholesale Supply Co., of Columbus, on May 2, 1914, and February 5, 1915, and local grocers claim that the supplies could have been purchased from local merchants at a saving of nearly fifty per cent.

The first bill of goods ordered amounted to $75.18 and local grocers claim that the same goods could have been purchased in Coshocton for $50.44 and if the entire bill had been purchased from one store the price would have been somewhat lower. The second bill amounted to $50.38 and if purchased here the price would not have been more than $39.08.

MAY GET CERTIFICATES

Coshocton county teachers who have completed the year's course of reading prescribed by the Ohio Teachers Reading Circle may obtain their certificates by calling at the county superintendent's office.

More Small Pox At New Bedford

Four New Cases Develop in Two Families--Total of Eleven Cases In Village Now--Authorities Say Epidemic Is Under Control.

Four new cases of smallpox have developed at West Bedford within the past week making a total of eleven cases in five homes. The latest victims are: Audrey, Beulah and Ralph Leavengood and Olga Holt. The latter makes her home with Mr. and Mrs. Dan Baker.

The new cases are all of a mild nature and authorities declare that they now have the malady under control. A report was circulated that the postoffice and several of the public places had been closed, but this is denied. The authorities at New Bedford are in almost daily communication with the state health authorities.

At the beginning of the quarantine, some difficulty was experienced in getting a thorough understanding of the quarantine regulations, but now that this has been done, authorities report that they have the co-operation of all in enforcing a strict quarantine. There are no cases at large.

One new case of scarlet fever was reported Wednesday night. The little son of Rev. Hissman had contracted the disease, but was reported to be in a satisfactory condition.

The Getz family will be released from quarantine Monday and will again take charge of the postoffice.

Three County Boys To Go To Agriculture School

The three Coshocton county boys receiving highest score in the boys stock judging contest in the county fair this fall will be given a free trip to Columbus and one week's instruction in the College of Agriculture next winter.

A. P. Sandles, of the Ohio Agricultural Commission, in a communication to County School Superintendent L. C. Shaw, also calls attention to the fact that a free three-year short course scholarship will be awarded to the boy in Coshocton county who grows the most corn on one acre of dirt, in compliance with the printed rules and regulations. This scholarship represents $60 cash value. Boys who desire to enter the contest can secure blanks at the county superintendent's office.

Four Free Trips.

The Agricultural Commission of four free trips on the Washington-Philadelphia-New York tour as follows: One for the best yield of shelled corn from one acre in each quarter of the state. The commission also offers $115 in cash prizes for the best state-wide yields of shelled corn from one acre, the prizes ranging from $25 down to $1. Boys in the corn growing contest are invited to select six ears of corn grown in their district and send to the state fair. Liberal premiums will be offered for the best six ears from each district.

Domestic Science.

The rules for the domestic sciences contest for girls have also been sent here by Mr. Sandles. Plain sewing, baking, canning and preserving are included in this contest. So many points are allowed for flavor, crust, etc. Of course the highest per cent is allowed for the flavor.

Apple Growing Contest.

The apple growing contest becomes more popular each year. Entries for 1914 were treble those of 1913. This is a movement for better fruit, better homes and greater pride in Ohio's resources.

Urged To Enter.

Much interest is also being taken in the Home Grounds Beautification contest. The slogan is: "Little beds of flowers, little cans of paint, Make a pretty cottage out of one that ain't." Boys and girls of both town and country are urged to enter this contest, as it tends to promote health, character and civic pride.

A Big Day At Warsaw

At 6:15 this morning the Good Roads day will start and continue in full swing until five in the evening. Warsaw heads the movement, and Nellie and many of the surrounding towns will join in this concerted effort to better the country highways. More than 100 men and about 50 teams will be at work throughout the day.

Plans For Third Season Of Bethel Camp Meeting

The third season of the Bethel Camp Meeting Association, of Coshocton will open at Roscoe, Thursday evening, June 10, and will continue until Sunday, June 20.

Attractive booklets announcing the program for the season's meeting were issued Wednesday and show much thought in preparation which promises to give to the camp meeting attendees one of the most instructive and inspirational religious meetings the county has ever enjoyed.

Noted Evangelists.

Among the workers who will help to make the meeting a success, are evangelists of national reputation. Rev. John L. Brasher, D. D., of Atlanta, Ga., returns for the second time. He is a scholarly Christian minister, who easily takes his place among able and forceful preachers of the world. He will remain throughout the entire campaign. Rev. Charles H. Babcock, of Los Angeles, Cal., is well known to the camp meeting enthusiasts as he has been one of the leaders in the two previous campaigns. He comes again this season to inspire the multitudes with his clear, pungent presentation of the great Bible truths. With Dr. Brasher, Rev. Babcock is easily a peer among preachers.

Johnstons In Charge.

The campers will meet with delight the announcement that Rev. A. H. Johnston and Mrs. Johnston, of Akron, have been secured to take charge of the music. Their presence assures the public a strong program of gospel singing. Rev. R. F. Whitehurst, founder and President Emeritus, of the association, will be present during the entire campaign and Mrs. Whitehurst will be in charge of the children's meetings. She has been giving time to special preparation and comes to the camp to make a very important hour in the life of the child.

On Same Ground.

In addition to the above other workers will be present from time to time to add to the completeness of the daily programs.

The camp meeting will be held on the same ground as used last year. The site has proved a very restful and refreshing spot where a cool breeze is constantly blowing during the warmest hours of the day. The adjoining orchard has also been secured for smaller tents. Those desiring tents are asked to notify the secretary, Charles H. Stipes, at once.

New Store Will Open

The following article is clipped from the April number of 5 and 10 Cent Store Magazine and Variety Review published at New York. It refers to the opening of the Davis and Bostwick store here next week. The firm has recently remodelled a fine store room on Main street and will open sometime next week.

"Coshooton, Ohio, is to have a new 5, 10 & 25 cent store to be known as the Enterprise. J. B. Davis, who for sixteen years has been engaged in the dry goods, shoe and notion store business, and H. W. Bostwick, who for eight years was engaged in the 5 and 10 cent business as manager for F. M. Kirby and the F. W. Woolworth Co. have secured the best location in Coshooton's business district and are remodeling it and installing handsome new fixtures. They expect to handle an up-to-date line of 5, 10 and 25c merchandise and will also handle sheet music and victrola records. Mr. Davis is a shrewd, conservative merchant and has been successful in the past. Mr. Bostwick's thorough experience in the management of syndicate stores gives assurance that the new store will be well stocked with up-to-date merchandise. Both stand high in the business world and are popular with all classes."

When Croup Comes Treat Externally

The old method of dosing delicate little stomachs with nauseous drugs is wrong and harmful. Try the external treatment—Vick's "Vap-O-Rub" Salve. Just rub a little over the throat and chest. The vapors, released by the body heat, loosen the choking phlegm and ease the difficult breathing. A bedtime application insures sound sleep. 25c, 50c, or $1.00.

Maxwell-Strome Nuptials.

In a wedding of quite simplicity Wednesday evening, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Strome, in Warsaw, their daughter, Miss Rhea Strome, became the wife of Russell Maxwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Maxwell, of the Coshocton-Warsaw road.

The ceremony uniting the two in marriage was performed at 7 o'clock by Rev. Roy I. Farmer, of West Lafayette college. A color scheme of pink and white made an attractive background for the event. The bride's gown was fashioned of pink crepe-de-chine and she carried a large bouquet of mixed pink and white carnations.

Following the ceremony and congratulations, a wedding supper was served at which covers were laid for the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Maxwell, Mr. and Mrs. William Maxwell, Mr. E. Z. Hays, Mrs. D. E. Wright, Miss Naomi Wright Mr. and Mrs.

John Strome, Miss Josephine Strome, Fayette Strome and Rev. Roy I. Farmer.

Both bride and bridegroom are well known young people of the county. Mrs. Maxwell is the elder daughter of John Strome, the well known merchant, of Warsaw. She is a graduate of the Warsaw high school. Mr. Maxwell is the younger son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Maxwell and is a promising young farmer. He is a graduate of the Roscoe high school. This morning the bridal pair will leave on a honeymoon trip to Detroit and upon their return will make their home for the present, with the bride's parents, in Warsaw.

Suit For Judgment Is Tried

For two days petit jury in common pleas court at New Philadelphia has been hearing the case of The York Manufacturing Co., of York, Pa., against the Newcomerstown Produce Co., in which the plaintiff is seeking to collect $125 with interest on a note, together with a small account.

The case started Tuesday morning, and Wednesday afternoon the defense started its case.

The plaintiffs installed an ice making and refrigerating plant in the Newcomerstown firm's building. The defendant is asking the court to be relieved from paying the Pennsylvania firm because the plant failed to work as guaranteed. Damages are also being asked by the Newcomerstown concern. It was expected the case would be given the jury late Wednesday.

Prosecuting Attorney Lindsay and Attorney Russell are the defendant's counsel.

Newcomers Man Wants Divorce

If there is anything to that old, old proverb, "The course of true love never runs smooth," Mrs. Jennie Campbell of Newcomerstown and her husband, William Campbell of LaPorte, Indiana, are truly in love, for their loving career has been a rough one.

Ruddy Cheeks—Sparkling Eyes—Most Women Can Have

Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known Ohio Physician

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, you will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter that one's system collects.

If you have a pale face, sallow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headaches, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results.

Thousands of women, as well as men, take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets now and then just to keep in the pink of condition. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the successful substitute for calomel—10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

Gold Dust cleans metal work, nickel, enameled ware, aluminum vessels, etc., without scratching or marring the polished surface.

Use it for washing bathtubs and bathroom fixtures, cleaning and brightening pots, pans and cooking utensils, cleaning and freshening linoleum and oilcloth, washing glassware—in short, use it to clean and brighten everything.

highway is a divorce petition filed in LaPorte courts by Campbell.

Mrs. Campbell is about 65 years and her husband is older. They were married about 45 years ago but had lived together only a few years when they agreed to disagree and a divorce was granted them.

For forty years each lived a life of single blessedness. Then their old fondness for each other returned and they were once more united in the holy bonds. But the knot was tied loosely and Campbell drifted to Indiana while Mrs. Campbell remained in Newcomerstown.

Now Campbell has tired of wedded life once more to the extent that his wife was made defendant in a divorce suit started Wednesday in LaPorte by the husband.—New Philadelphia Times.

Mystery Surrounds Mulatto

An unknown mulatto girl, aged about 19, lies in an unconscious condition at the Watson hotel in Trinway. All efforts to identify the girl or to ascertain the cause of her condition had proved fruitless at an early hour this morning.

The girl was seen passing the Trinway school about two o'clock Wednesday afternoon carrying a suit case. Four hours later she was found lying unconscious on the canal towpath about a mile from Dresden. She was taken back to Trinway where she was attended by Dr. Iden. Owing to the fact that no marks of violence were found on the body, it is suspected that the girl had attempted suicide by some unknown drug.

When found, the girl's hat, shoes, and suit case were missing. The latter was later found and opened but no marks of identification were discovered. The girl was well dressed and wore several rings and a locket. At first it was thought that the girl belonged at Zanesville but the clue proved to be a false one.

Asking that the receivership be vacated and that the company's business be turned over to the board of directors, answer and cross petition of the Mizer Sanatorium Company was filed in common pleas court Wednesday in the case brought by French V. Mizer, a member of the company.

It is alleged that the plaintiff never paid for the stock subscribed to him by the company and that he failed to turn into the company's treasury large sums which he collected in connection with the business.

The company asks that the case be dismissed and that the plaintiff be required to pay into the treasury the money which he has collected.

Mrs. Hannah Sawyer made application Wednesday in Justice Wimmer's court for a pension.

Mrs. Sawyer is the widow of the late Joseph Sawyer, a Mexican war veteran. She and her husband were married in 1854 and lived in Coshocton for 61 years. Mrs. Sawyer is 79 years of age and in presenting her claim, called two or three as witnesses who were in their seventies. She is perhaps the oldest in the county to apply for or receive a pension.

WALLACE IS A SELF MADE MAN

The billboards and dead walls about the city are proclaiming in all the eloquence of pictorial art that the Carl Hagenbeck-Wallace circus is to visit Coshocton, Wednesday, May 5.

Great interest attaches to the event because amusement lovers will have a chance of viewing the combined performance of the two greatest circus organizations on the road. The Carl Hagenbeck trained wild animals are famed in every nation on the globe. At the European headquarters of the show, Hamburg, Germany, the animals are transported after their capture and taught to perform remarkable feats. There are lions that ride upon the backs of galloping horses; tigers that ride bicycles; polar bears that play roller coaster and in fact there may be seen during the performance almost every wild animal, broken and subdued to execute tricks.

Almost a score of noted wild animal trainers headed by Capt. Emil Schwyer have charge of the performing wild animals. They all perform in a massive steel arena.

The history of the Great Wallace circus is apart of the history of America. With the stalwart B. E. Wallace as the originator the show grew from a single wagon to one of the most colossal institutions of its kind. Starting as a poor Indiana farmer boy Mr. B. E. Wallace as the originator, early in the course of thirty years, saw his show reach the pinnacle of America's circenses. He was once so poor that he was glad to work for fifty cents per week. Today he is rated as America's richest circusman. The assertion has never been questioned. Yet, with his many and varied interests he devotes his personal attention to the interests of the Hagenbeck-Wallace shows. There are in the neighborhood of 1,000 people connected with the big show. He personally engages every attraction. The combined shows are transported from city to city upon three of the longest circus trains in America. If they were any longer the railroads would be unable to handle them. The twenty-two tents that house the great circus cover a small size farm, forming in fact a complete city within itself.

compare favorably with gravel at rates which did not require crushing or screening but was rolled with steam roller.

One of these contracts was on the Coshocton-West Lafayette road near the infirmity farm, 1900 feet in length, built in 1912 under the usual specifications for gravel as to width and depth.

The slag was hauled nearly two miles and the entire cost at the per mile rate was under $3000.

Another contract in Franklin township near the Franklin church was built in 1912, 1600 feet in length under the same conditions as to length of haul and preparation.

Flint Hill Road.

The Flint Hill road was improved with slag about six years ago and is in good condition with small amount of repairs.

No data as to cost or method of construction is at hand.

Another road material has been used in a short sample section near the fair grounds, about 300 feet in length, composed of iron furnace slag from Canal Dover. This short section was built about four years ago and has carried a heavy traffic, largely coal wagons, with but little wear.

The cost of this material would exceed that of the local materials mentioned on account of freight and hauling charges.

Cost Rate.

The following statement of brick and concrete roadways is noted showing per mile cost rate.

The Canal Lewisville road paved with brick in 1909, one and one half miles in length cost by contract $13,700 or per mile $9,120 exclusive of all contingencies of advertising, engineering and supervision.

The brick paved road in Jackson township known as the Infield Hill, 1570 feet in length, cost by contract $4700 or at the rate of $1600 per mile. In this case brick and foundation gravel were hauled nearly two miles to the work.

The Coshocton and Millersburg road from Coshocton bridge to the Basin bridge 4700 feet in length, paved with concrete, excepting two bridge approaches, cost contract price, $8600 or about $9700 per mile. The work was largely resurfacing limestone macadam laid three or four years earlier.

The Cambridge Road was paved with concrete in 1912 from the Corporation line to the foot of Flint Hill, 2100 feet in length cost by contract $5337, a per mile rate of about $13,400 exclusive of all contingencies.

Newest Road.

The recently completed concrete State Aid road from the Corporation line at Second street to Randall bridge cost, contract price, $24,480 and the total cost $26,500 or a per mile rate of $20,000 for the one and one third miles built, the State paying one half of the entire cost. This work may be said to be the last word in concrete road construction as worked out from the past experience of the Highway Department and it is hoped the wear of this concrete roadway will show less of the defects inherent in this class of work heretofore owing to, in part, natural causes, expansion and contraction.

work heretofore owing to, in part, natural causes, expansion and contraction.

Home Labor.

The drift of the foregoing in the cases of local material is that good roads have been built with such material and can be done again with the same preparation and treatment of gravel or slag. In favor of the less expensive material is the fact that nearly the entire cost is home labor.

At a cost around $3000 per mile it is practicable to build annually from eight to ten miles of improved roads under the existing laws through county, township and district effort.

The subject of maintenance of improved and unimproved roads as it is now done and as it should be done may be discussed further on.

How To Get Rid of a Bad Cough

A Home-Made Remedy that Will Do It Quickly, Cheap and Easily Made

If you have a bad cough or chest cold which refuses to yield to ordinary remedies, get from any druggist 2½ ounces of Pinex (50 cents worth), pour into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. Start taking a teaspoonful every hour or two. In 24 hours your cough will be conquered or very nearly so. Even whooping cough is greatly relieved in this way.

The above mixture makes a full pint—a family supply—of the finest cough syrup that money could buy—at a cost of only 54 cents. Easily prepared in 5 minutes. Full directions with Pinex. This Pinex and Sugar Syrup preparation takes right hold of a cough and gives almost immediate relief. It loosens the dry, hoarse or tight cough in a way that is really remarkable. Also quickly heals the inflamed membranes which accompany a painful cough, and stops the formation of phlegm in the throat and bronchial tubes, thus ending the persistent loose cough. Excellent for bronchitis, spasmodic croup and winter coughs. Keeps perfectly and tastes good—children like it.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, rich in quaiacol, which is so healing to the membranes.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for 2½ ounces of Pinex—do not accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded goes with this preparation. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Monster Tape Worm

Five-Year-Old Elmer Nickols Is Relieved of Parasite

Many Visit the Office at 231 So. 6th St.

Vurpillat and his Sea-Onion Compound have gained their first victory in the city, yesterday. The results obtained fully prove all that is claimed for this preparation. It is evident from the reports in this city that this practical advertiser will demonstrate to the satisfaction of all that he is not making any idle boast, but stands ready to fulfill all promise made in regard to his New Sea-Onion-Compound. Mr. and Mrs. Nickols who live on Canal street Newcomerstown, Ohio, are very grateful for results obtained in their little boy's case who is five years of age. Mr. Nickols who works in the pipe works called upon Vurpillat bringing with him a container in which was a large tape-worm, which passed from his boy.

has suffered with stomach trouble, dizzy spells, headaches, constipation, appetite was irregular, in fact he had a general run-down condition of his entire system. After an examination by the specialist, I purchased your Sea-Onion-Compound and after he had taken a few doses, this monster tape-worm passed from his system. I know this was the cause of his sickness and I for one am glad you came to our city and am truly grateful for what your preparation has done for him."

The Free Vaudeville show and health lectures, continue to draw large crowds nightly on the Hay's lot, opposite the Wheeling depot. Many people visit the office which is located at No. 231 South Sixth street, where consultation, examination, and advice are given free daily to all who care to call, between the hours of 9 a. m., 4 p. m. and 7 and 8 in the evening.

With gratitude showing in his face Mr. Nickols said, "My boy

BEATING HARD TIMES

George M. Brown, of the General Roofing company is out with a statement that judicious, persistent, well written advertising will tide any manufacturing or retail firm over an industrial depression, such as the world is now experiencing.

At the outbreak of the war Brown saw what was coming—and declared he didn't propose to be caught. He knew that the tide of war would arise to a mighty volume, but he said he didn't propose to be overwhelmed by it. He sought in advertising a preventive of the depression he saw was inevitable.

He expressed his skepticism of what he calls "fair weather advertising," the free use of printer's ink when times are good, or while the season for a particular line of goods is at its height, and then ceasing to advertise when times are dull or the season is over. He said if advertising has any merit he would have to be convinced when times were slow.

As a result General Roofing showed a gain of 70 percent right through the dull times. The big St. Louis firm has been exceptionally busy, all because Mr. Brown, at the outset of "hard times," so-called, set aside $250,000 as an advertising appropriation.

His competitors have lost business, to be sure. They too, saw a business depression ahead and accordingly lopped off their advertising appropriation, or cut it out altogether. They didn't believe the business was to be obtained—so they quit trying for it—and lost.

That quarter of a million set aside for advertising by the General Roofing company was bread cast upon the waters—and there is Biblical proof for the assertion that bread so disposed of comes back, many fold.

It came back to General Roofing and it will come back to any business man who has nerve enough to advertise and brains enough to know how to do it scientifically.

Our guess is that the real reason why both sides in the European war are peeved at the United States is that just when Europe needs tourists worst Europeans are acting so badly that our tourists can't get to them.

APRIL DAYS

By Walt Mason

It's April, the sunny, so hand me my lyre! The month for my money, the month I admire. The breezes are tender that sigh o'er the sea, and folks of each gender are dancing with glee. No blizzards are blowing their way through the streets, but garden sassa, growing, gives promise of eats. The milkmaid is milking the solemn-eyed cows; book agents are bilking the easy-mark frauds; the farmers are riding on spring-seated tools, and singing and hiding the dingbusted mules. The postmen are going on jubilant legs, you'd think, from their crowing, they laid all the eggs. The whole world rejoices that April is here, and all of the voices that come to the ear, with rapture are thrilling, with peace and content: so why are you spilling, those tears, gloomy gent? The winter is ended, and spring is on deck, and everything's splendid and bully, by heck! So shame on the critter who digs up a whine, whose bosom is bitter, whose eyes soak in brine! There's joy in the breezes, there's zip in the air, forget your diseases, your grief and your care!

LET SENTANEL LAXATIVES DO YOUR SPRING CLEANING

Wonderful Little Performers, 10c

Like your house, your system needs a little special attention in the spring. Winter has left your bowels clogged, your liver lazy, your blood impure; you need a good inside housecleaning. Sentanel Laxatives will do the trick. And do it without pain or griping. They work more effectively than the ordinary cathartic, for they not only clean out the nasty, noxious poisons, and put your liver back on the job, but they tune up the whole system so that you feel simply great.

There's not a bit of mercury (calomel) in Sentanel Laxatives. They are made entirely from old-fashioned, time-tried herbs and plants that are used by physicians daily. Have your druggist send you a box. 10 doses 10c. Get them busy tonight. Your money back if they don't quickly make out the nasty, noxious poisons, and put your liver back on the job, but they tune up the whole system so that you feel simply great.

Paris, April 21.—The following official communique was issued here: "Fifty incendiary bombs were thrown into Rheims. In Champagne and in the Argonne there were artillery duels without infantry attacks. Between the Meuse and the Moselle, in the Montmarie wood near the Fleury Essey road, we have made slight progress."

Conference Called by Willis.

Columbus, April 21.—Governor Willis, who has called a conference of operators and miners' representatives to be held at Canton Friday morning, will be disappointed if the conference does not produce real results. He will attend the conference himself. It was stated he had by personal representatives been keeping in close touch with the strike situation for several weeks.

Paterson N. J., April 21.—"Bring a 10 cent piece for each year you have been a Christian, and bring a dollar if you can," was Billy Sunday's announcement for Thursday's afternoon meeting. Whether this special plea for a silver offering is due to the slim collections so far Sunday did not state.

If the benighted souls imagined that he was rinzing up fares or trying to swim in a very dry atmosphere the external world and its ashes must be blamed. THEATRES

AT THE PASTIME

With the first appearance of Miss Jessie Smith, of Columbus, as pianist at the Pastime theatre this evening, Manager Chacos has secured a program of films of more than ordinary interest. The feature picture will be, "The Love or Women," in which Lilie Leslie and William Cobill will star. The film is one of the best of the Lubin society dramas.

On Friday night, Manager Chacos will give a benefit performance for the senior class of the High school, when he will present, "The Man Behind the Door," a laughing scream.

AT THE MYSTIC.

The Mystic theatre has a double attraction on for today, matinee and night. The vaudeville acts pleased the audience last night and will be repeated today in connection with a new two reel Keystone comedy featuring Syd Chaplin. Mable and Fatty are also featured in a good film.

Charms Souls With Dances

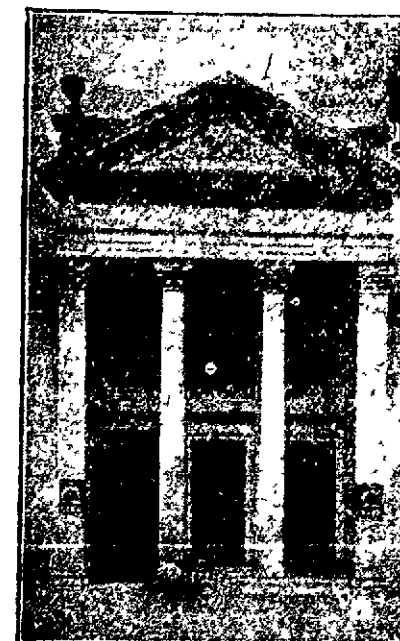

New York, April 21.—Paul Swan, who admits he is the most beautiful man in the world, danced at the Plaza Hotel today for hundreds of enraptured women and a handful of disgruntled men, members of the society of the American Renaissance.

To appreciate fully Paul's appeal one must be translated into a silence, a metaphysical coma, in which the soul predominates. Dr. Horatio W. Dresser of Harvard so announced, at any rate, before the dancer began his uplift. "Separate yourself from the external world," he warned, "with its ashes, and turn back to the golden age of Greece. The soul must be poised, balanced and set at order within."

While the audience were tinkering with their souls, Miss Anna Tonn MacIntyre appeared before a velvet curtain and began to de-lam the Rubaiyat. Then Mr. Swan, attired in short black swimming tights, in a large automobile veil and rouge and powder entered and explained through his motions (every one of them a picture) what Omar really had

The Promise of A Better Tire Day

Goodyear Fortified Tires came, years ago, to promise men a better tire day. And that promise was fulfilled.

They made Goodyear the largest-selling tire in the world, a place it has held ever since. Last year men bought 1,479,883—about one for each car in use.

Not Magical

Don't expect in the Goodyear a magical tire. It is not exempt from mishap and misuse.

It won't top place because it averaged best. It did that because, in five great ways, it excels every other tire. It combats in five ways, exclusive to Goodyears, these six major troubles—

Rim-Cuts
Blowouts
Loose Treads
Insecurity
Punctures
Skidding
One way—our "On-Air" cure costs us $350.

000 yearly. One comes through forming in each tire hundreds of large rubber rivets. One compels us to vulcanize in each tire base 126 braided piano wires.

One comes through our double-thick All-Weather tread, with its sharp, tough, resistless grips. These things together mean a super-tire.

Lower Prices

Yet these costly-built tires, in the past two years, have been three reduced in price. Our last reduction—on February 1st—brings the two-year total to 45%.
